SCHOOLS OPEN DEC. 2

BOARD DECIDES "FLU" CONDITIONS ARE STILL UNSAFE

ALL TEACHERS ARE PAID

Manner in Which Time Lost Will Be Made Up Is Left to Supt. McDonald.—New Principal.

Maryville public schools will remain closed until Monday, Dec. 2. This was the decision reached at a meeting last night of the school board, following the announcement by the city health authorities that the influenza ban would be lifted next Monday morning, at which time the schools would be permitted to open if the board so elected. It was the opinion of a majority of the members that it would be advisable to defer opening another week, awaiting developments as to influenza conditions following the removal of the ban. The fact that Thanksgiving comes next week and also that a number of parents had said they would not send their children until all danger was past, served to influence the members in making the decision and Superintendent J. M. McDonald was instructed to advise the teachers to be in readiness to resume classes on the date named.

The manner in which the time lost—seven weeks—will be made up was left to Superintendent McDonald, who expressed himself as being in favor of adding half an hour to each week day with three hours on Saturday mornings until the close of the term, with Christmas holidays being reduced to two days, Christmas day and the day following. If this plan is followed all the time lost may be made up by the time the school term is scheduled to close, without lengthening the term. Definite announcement of the plan will be announced by Superintendent McDonald before the opening on December 2.

The board decided to pay the teachers for the time lost without deductions of any kind and warrants were ordered drawn, this being the end of the third month since the opening in the fall.

The resignation of Miss Mamie Kane as principal of the Jefferson school was accepted by the board and Miss Myrtle Hogue was elected to fill out the remainder of the term. Miss Hogue has been a teacher in the second grade for a number of years and her advancement is a well deserved promotion.

Other than allowing a number of bills no other business was transacted at the meeting.

THEIR BIGGEST WINNINGS

Shorthorns From the Bellows Bros., Herd Took Large Share of the Prizes at American Royal.

Animals from the fine Shorthorn herd of Bellows Bros., were large winners at the American Live Stock Show just closed in Kansas City, being awarded five firsts, four seconds, together with a loving cup and other winnings. Classes in which the Bellows Bros. animals were winners were:

First on aged herd; first on young herd; first on produce of cow; first on futurity heifer; first on junior heifer calf; second on get of sire; second on two year old bull; second on two year old heifer; second and fifth on junior bull calves; fifth on calf herd.

This represents the largest winnings of the Parkdale Farm herd at any of the big shows, with the American Royal this year bringing together the greatest number of exhibitors in the history of the show. The prize winning animals will be shipped to Chicago to compete in the International Live Stock Exposition which will be held there next week.

Parkdale Victoria II, owned by Bellows Brothers won the W. R. Nelson trophy for the best futurity calf in the Shorthorn class. Bellows Brothers won the award two years ago, being the first breeders to win the trophy twice.

The Caldwell animals, also extensive winners at the Kansas City show, will also be exhibited at Chicago next week.

SECRETARY M'ADOO RESIGNS

"Inadequate Pay" of Cabinet Officers One of Reasons Given.—Will Retire to Private Life.

Washington, Nov. 23.—The capital today is still reeling over the shock of the announcement of the retirement from public life of Secretary McAdoo. Accepting absolutely at its face value the statement of Mr. McAdoo that he was compelled to quit to "recoup his fortune," officialdom was criticizing a system that put a premium on rich men. It was agreed that the problem of filling the vacant place will be a hard one, although President Wilson, it is understood, has a man in view to head the treasury and will announce his choice next week.

Washington, Nov. 23.—William G. McAdoo has resigned office as secretary of the treasury and director-general of railroads, to leave the treasury on the appointment of a successor and the railroad administration on Jan. 1, next.

Retirement was made necessary, Mr. McAdoo said, because of "inadequate compensation," allowed cabinet officers.

The secretary also explained that he is seriously in need of rest, although there is no actual impairment of health.

The secretary plans to take about three months rest and then may resume the practice of law in New York.

The president in his letter of acceptance expressed regret at the secretary's resignation, referring particularly to Mr. McAdoo's "distinguished, disinterested and altogether admirable service rendered the country in both posts."

Mr. McAdoo explained to the correspondents that he had intended to resign before March 4, 1917, but remained because of pressing war problems.

LIBRARY RE-OPENS MONDAY

Patrons Will No Longer Have to Haunt News Stands for Something to Read.—New Books Soon.

No longer will patrons of the public library have to haunt the news stands in search of something to read. The library will reopen Monday, following the lifting of the influenza ban, while the rule requiring that not more than twenty persons assemble at one time will be observed, patrons will have access as usual to the books and the reading rooms. R. L. McDougal, member of the library board stated this morning that while the board had taken no action it might be announced that the library would be open again to patrons Monday.

With the library fund having been exhausted no new books have been purchased for some time, but a list is being prepared of some of the late fiction and other works by Miss Grace Langan, librarian, and it is expected that funds will be available within a short time with which to make the needed additions.

ARE FOR MEMORIAL

NODAWAY CITIZENS PLEDGE SUPPORT TO MOVEMENT

MAKE IT WORTH WHILE

W. C. Pierce, Liberty Loan Chairman and C. E. Donlin, Head of the United War Fund Drive, Express Their Opinions.

The movement to erect a memorial in honor of Nodaway county soldiers commemorating deeds of valor and sacrifices in the great war is meeting with hearty approval. W. C. Pierce, chairman of the Third and Fourth Liberty Loan committees adds endorsement to the movement in the following communication to the Democrat-Forum:

Democrat-Forum: I am glad to reply to your letter with reference to some kind of a memorial as a mark of appreciation of the patriotic services of the Nodaway county soldiers and sailors in the "great war," but I regret I am not sufficiently informed.

First, that there should be one erected, we will all agree. What should be the nature I am undecided. By what name it should be known and where situated would depend, in my judgment, upon the nature.

The funds should, I think, be obtained by a popular subscription—something in the nature of a county-wide solicitation—but this should not be attempted until the Liberty Loans and subscriptions to other war activities are out of the road. While our soldiers are in service Uncle Sam will need the proceeds from additional bond issues and there will be the subscriptions to United War Works and things necessary for the comfort of the boys, and it is therefore unwise to burden the people until that is over.

It might be argued the money could be raised easier now than later, but that would be charging ourselves with a lack of patriotism. We are certainly not going to forget within the next few months the deeds of valor and the sacrifices made by the sons of this county.

It would afford me pleasure to take any part or render any service necessary to the accomplishment of the end.

Yours truly,
W. C. PIERCE.

C. E. Donlin of Hopkins, chairman of the United War Work Fund Campaign and an enthusiastic Red Cross worker offers suggestions as follows:

Editor Democrat-Forum: Your query regarding just what form of memorial should be adopted by the county or the various towns in the county received. I have recently been all over the county and believe that I am in a position to say that the people of the county would NOT take kindly to a proposition of a memorial for the Nodaway county boys if that memorial was to be placed in Maryville.

My idea is that every town in the county will no doubt adopt some plan of its own and will want a more intimate association with the suggestion than a formal gift to a central memorial shaft or what ever form it might take on.

I think eventually every town will adopt some plan of its own and on that account the leaders will not take kindly to any idea of taking the whole plan into a central organization.

If I were a citizen of Maryville my suggestion to the citizens there would be that it take on a permanent plan of a Y. M. C. A. building named in honor of the boys who went from Maryville or Nodaway county. It seems to me to be the opportune time strike that lick for a Y. M. C. A. in Maryville

My only reason for not undertaking the proposition in Hopkins is the town is not large enough to support such an institution as it should be.

This in my opinion would be a more lasting testimonial of the honor and esteem of your citizens, to the boys who fought your and my battles, than a shaft of marble or granite would be.

Being under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. it would be assured of competant and practical attention.

In any event some effort should be made to permanently honor these young men who left their business and work of every sort to serve their country and if it is the sense of the citizens of Nodaway county that a central memorial should be erected in Maryville I am for it.

I think however each community should work out that plan that suits them best.

Yours truly,
C. E. DONLIN.

AUTO THEIVES BUSY AGAIN

Garage of Banker J. T. Goff at Arkoe, Broken Into and Ford Roadster Stolen.—No Clue.

Thieves last night broke into the garage of J. T. Goff, cashier of the Arkoe State bank and got away with his Ford roadster. With two padlocks on the garage, one of them a Yale lock, it appears that the thieves had little trouble in gaining an entrance and succeeded in getting the car out without disturbing the family, the Goff residence being less than one hundred feet from the garage. Officers were at once notified of the theft and efforts were made to trace the thieves but without result. Late this afternoon no clue had been found that might be followed.

ZEIGLER'S MEN LOST A HARD FOUGHT GAME YESTERDAY

GATE RECEIPTS SMALL

Maryville Shows Little Appreciation of Team That Has Been Playing Winning Football.

Before a crowd of less than fifty persons the Maryville High School football team yesterday afternoon, playing the Cameron Highs, lost one of the best games of the season, the final score being 12-7. The M. H. S. displayed everything they had in stock, but their wares did not look good to the Cameronites, who outplayed them. The visitors, however, will remember for a long time to come that Maryville was about the toughest proposition they have ever tackled. The game left the Maryville's in the hole to the tune of about $80, the gate receipts being about $8.

Yesterday's game was played on a wet, sticky field, but was a battle from start to finish.

Maryville won the toss up and received the kick off. Maryville started to plowing through for big gains, De Armond carrying the ball most of the time. Then Maryville lost the ball on a fumble and Cameron, after a few plays sent their quarter back through the line for a touch-down. Price missed a tackle which made the touch-down possible. Cameron did not kick goal. When Cameron kicked off, Maryville plowed through them and carried the ball down the field for a touch-down, Pierpoint carrying the ball over. When Maryville kicked off to Cameron they were full of pep and playing real football. But at this point DeArmond was put out of the game for illegal use of his hands. Maryville was penalized half the distance to the goal line. This took a lot of pep out of Maryville. Cameron after a few plays made a touch-down, but failed to kick goal. A few minutes later the half ended.

The second half was an even break. Maryville kicked off to Cameron. Neither team was able to get near the other's goal line. Most of the playing was done in the mud in the middle of the field. No scores were made. The half ended with the ball in the middle of the field.

For Maryville Captain Pierpoint was easily the star performer. DeArmond made some fine plays before he was put out. His loss was felt during the remainder of the game. Price did not play his usual good game. Foreman played a fine game. In the line Campbell and French opened a hole every time.

For Cameron, Witt, quarter-back and Howard, right guard, starred. Witt is a fine broken field runner.

Maryville plays Savannah Thanksgiving at Savannah. A large number of Maryville rooters expect to go to the game.

ROBERT GROPPE IN ENGLAND

Nodaway Boy Is Recovering From Injuries in Base Hospital.

Robert Groppe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Groppe, writes from London where he is convalescing following an airplane accident in which he had both arms broken, under date of November 5, as follows:

"Am feeling fine now except a little nervous for I have just had the la-grippe—they call it influenza over here—but its grippe just the same. It is quite rainy in England, raining almost every day, so I can't run around much. Am in a convalescent ward now and when the weather permits I am all over London and seeing some mighty interesting places. I have been going around with a fellow that lives close to New Richland, but he says he doesn't know any Carters. I hope you get the letter I wrote about the Red Cross, for it is like work to write one. All the time I was writing it I thought of how Miss Keeler at the high school used to rave at my English. I got the bundle of papers and was mighty glad to get them, for there is a lot of reading in them. Can you send them every week to two in a bundle?"

Jefferson City, Mo., Nov. 23.—Missouri furnished 144,478 fighting men and contributed many millions toward the winning of the war, according to an address of Governor Gardner before county food administrators today.

The governor, who obtained his figures from Col. J. H. McCord, executive officer of the selective draft, and Adjutant-General Clark, said that Missouri furnished 14,756 national guardsmen, 100,305 men under the selective service act, 3,984 men to the regular army, 7,700 men to the United States Navy, 5,864 men to naval reserves, 5,000 marines, 2,639 to special arms, and 400 to officers' training camps.

Governor Gardner said Missourians had purchased more than $500,000,000 in liberty bonds, and had oversubscribed their quotas to all war charities.

The governor expressed hope that the United States would demand a righteous peace, untarnished by envy, jealousy, hate or spite, but bottomed on justice.

We have a notion that one of the reasons that decided President Wilson on the European trip was Mrs. Wilson.

A lazy man's idea of happiness isn't "nothing to do;" it is seeing something to do and not having to do it.

These "fair food prices" seem to be "fair" only to the man who has the food to sell. At least it looks that way to a man up a tree.

"What is a limited corporation, or partnershhip," a high school boy asked us today. Well, for instance there was "Me und Gott."

We note in a Kansas City paper that "L. R. Tolliver, who was stabbed in the rear of the basement at the Jackson County Home for the Aged will recover." A knife wound in that place is apt to be fatal.

A student of nature says that the reason why leaves turn red in the autumn is, that they blush to think how green they've been all summer.

But what availeth it that the allowance of sugar will be doubled or even quadrupled beginning December 1, if during the holidays eggs are higher'n a cat's back and whisky unobtainable. Hey!

Of course, no one expected that the armistice terms would cover every necessary feature and detail, but it would have been a wise thing to have included something about the influx of Chautauqua lecturers by men who have been "over there" next summer. It is then that we will indeed begin to realize that what Sherman said about war was so.

A Maryville man boasts that his wife makes over his old hats so neatly they completely fool him and would fool any man. Maybe so "ANY man" but its a cinch they don't fool ANY woman.

Now if the board of public works will just declare the ban off on the muddy water we've been getting lately there will be real cause for Thanksgiving.

FIND WONDERFUL ROADS

Built by Huns With Timber Stolen From Argonne Forest, Construction Astonished Engineers.

Paris (by mail).—Four years ago when the Teutonic hordes, sweeping across the Argonne hills and forests were suddenly stopped at Verdun they constructed a road which is considered by American engineers as one of the most remarkable they have yet come across in re-occupied French territory.

The road is about two kilometers long, built of planks, smooth as glass, with two levels, each for one way traffic, and constructed at the side of a steep hill which served as protection from Allied shells. The enormous amount of lumber required for this double-track highway was of course, stolen from the Argonne forests.

Hidden behind the steep cliffs the road was literally stumbled upon by the American First Army in its recent advance. While it had been used, no doubt, constantly since the late fall of 1914, it was in perfect condition when it fell into American hands.

The road itself was absolutely necessary to the Germans because of the scarcity of highways leading into that part of the Argonne. It was a short cut, considered from a communication standpoint, and while American batteries had completely cut up all other German avenues of escape, the plank road was saved from injury by its hillside protection.

Anyway, now it belongs to the Americans.

OBITUARY.

"I held it true whate'er befall,
I felt it when I sorrowed most,
'Tis better to have loved and lost
Than never to have loved at all."

Clifford Lyman Moon was born near Arkoe, Mo., Nov. 30, 1899, and died at his late home in Maryville, Mo., Oct. 7, 1918, being at the time of his death eighteen years, eleven months and nine days old.

He grew to manhood at Pickering, Mo,. and attended the Pickering high school, where he took active part in the athletics of the school. He afterward attended the State Normal School at Maryville for a short time.

When about fifteen years of age he professed faith in Christ in a meeting conducted by Evangelist Goodale. He united with the Pickering church under the ministry of E. W. Killion.

The funeral was conducted by the writer in the presence of a small number of friends and relatives at the family home on East Third St., in Maryville, after which the body was laid to rest in the White Oak cemetery near the old home at Pickering.

It is hard to be called upon to mourn for those whom we fondly hoped would mourn for us. The parents have the smypathy of the entire community in the loss of their only son. May the kind Heavenly Father comfort them as only our God can comfort.

"This truth came born with shroud and pall,
I feel it when I sorrow most,
'Tis better to have loved and lost,
Than never to have loved at all."

NEWS FROM
NODAWAY COUNTY TOWNS

(Taken From Papers Over the County)

The prospect now is that the Elmo schools will not be reopened before Monday, Dec. 2, two weeks from last Monday. The "flu" is still here, and while the cases are usually mild, the Board feels that it would be better to wait until all danger is past. "Better to be safe than sorry."

S. R. Johnston of Elmo, was ordered by the U. S. civil service, to report at Leehall, Va., for work as a carpenter, and expected to report for duty Monday, Nov. 18, but got a telegram countermanding the order, because the war is over.

Lafe Harness of the aviation corps, fell last week and broke an arm. He was getting ready to go overseas, and expected to ship November 12. He was in Elmo a few days since, having come thru with the body of a friend who was buried at Blanchard recently.

A car loaded with the personal effects of the Rev. M. Dewitt was shipped from Skidmore yesterday to Craig where Rev. Dewitt is minister of the M. E. Church, South. Rev. Dewitt had until last conference served the congregations of this denomination at Skidmore, Centenary and New Hope for four years and during that time he and his family have formed many warm friendships not only in his own church, but with the people in general who regret to have them leave. The best wishes of all go with them to their new home.

G. F. Kellogg, in the government feed and seed department at Kansas City, was out over portions of the states of Nebraska, Kansas and Iowa the first of the week on a trip to ascertain the prospects for garden seeds for the coming season. During his absence, Mrs. Kellogg came to Skidmore and remained from Sunday until Wednesday morning with her parents Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Owens.

Jarvis Close is now the owner of the south 160 acres of the R. M. New 320 acre farm, having purchased it from Nr. New a few days ago. This farm lies eight miles west of Skidmore and is the quarter on which the improvements are located. The consideration was $180 per acre. Mr. New has purchased what is known as the Mutz 240 acre farm 2½ miles southwest of Maryville and will make that place his home. $215 an acre was paid for this place.

As Kellar Thompson of Hopkins, is not given to strong drink, it is safe for us to announce that he caught a real live lizard last Friday. The reptile was fully ten inches long and was captured near the crossing between the Wm. King and H. C. Clutter homes The delivery boy for Fike & Gray happened along about the time the lizzard was picked up so he threw it in the truck and brought it down town to have, as he said, "fun with," and when the reptile was placed near some of the chair warmers in the store, big, brave men jumped higher and yelled louder than some little timid women do when they see a mouse.

This is a year of all years that Thanksgiving should be observed in its fullest sense, it being the greatest of all years in the history of America, the victorious ending of a cruel war—the unconditional surrender of Germany, the country responsible for a war of conquest. The Thanksgiving program at Hopkins will be held at 10:45 in the Presbyterian church, the sermon to be delivered by the Rev. Mr. Stiles, the new pastor of the Methodist church, and he will be assisted by other ministers of the town. There will also be a program of music. The stores and other places of business will close and it is expected many from the country will be here to enjoy and take part in the exercises.

David Robb is now working at the Bank of Hopkins, taking the place of Robert Wolfers, who left last week for Chicago in answer to a call from the war department, having enlisted in the navy some months ago. His wife is visiting at present in the home of her parents in Madison, Wis., and will spend part of the time there and part of the time in Hopkins during Robert's absence.

Nothing increases the value of lands more than good roads to say nothing of the satisfaction and convenience good roads always are. Other states are expending vast sums in improving the highways and Missouri should not lag in this matter. The Journal would like to see Nodaway county and better still, Hopkins township, lead in the campaign for better roads. Illinois is going to spend sixty millions of dollars in building better roads.

Mrs. Chas. Evans of Hopkins, had a fine rooster she was fattening for a Thanksgiving night feast but last Thursday night the fowl disappeared and a diligent search of the neighborhood failed to disclose its whereabouts Of course, the fact that a Methodist parson resides near the Evans home, has no bearing on the case, but when it is remembered a meeting of Methodist ministers had been advertised for this week, the rooster must be given credit for having enough sense to smell a mouse and make good its getaway. The meeting has been called off, so the rooster can now return in safety.

Lee Rasco of Barnard, is about the most fortunate man in the country when it comes to late garden stuff. Saturday made him 50 years old and Sunday found his son-in-law, Virgil Hardisty 30 years old, so they gathered at Lee's home for a dinner Sunday. Lee picked enough ripe strawberries from his patch of Everbearing strawberries, to supply two full dishes of the lucious fruit, which were served to the guests of honor.

J. Howard Thompson, formerly a pastor of the M. E. Church of Barnard is now a "Y" secretary according to a letter received by Tom Humberd and wife.

The various churches of Barnard will hold a union Thanksgiving service on November 28th at 7:30 p. m This day has been appointed by our President of our nation; that we should enter into the house of God and give thanks for the numberless blessings bestowed. If there is ever a time in the history of our Lord, that we should be grateful to Almighty God, it is now. The victory of the great and world wide war has been achieved and peace has just been ushered in. Come and join with us Thanksgiving night and render unto Him our sincere thanks The sermon will be preached by the Rev. R. M. Wetzel, at the M. E. Church, South. There will be patriotic music.

The annual Thanksgiving service of Burlington Junction, will be held this year at the Methodist church. Altho it has been the custom for several years to hold this service in the forenoon, it was decided this year to change the hour to 7:30 in the evening as it is much more convenient for the majority of people to attend in the evening. So the service will be held in the Methodist church at 7:30 o'clock next Thursday evening, and will be conducted by Rev. J. M. Delezene, the new pastor of the Christian church, assisted by Rev. Ernest Snider.

The demand for Nodaway county soil is as great this year as ever, several farms having already changed hands this fall in the vicinity of Burlington Junction at figures that show, in some cases, a ten per cent advance over a year ago. While some purchases the past year have been made by local parties, Iowa men are beginning to appreciate the quality of Nodaway county soil, and are coming here in increasing numbers each year to make their homes. They are good judges of values—the Iowa men—and they know that Nodaway county has as good soil as can be found any place in the corn belt. The $200 an acre farm was once a novelty, even in Southern Iowa, but from the present outlook it will be a pretty common piece of real estate in this good country, where everything can be grown except tropical fruits and vegetables.

The three new buildings at Burlington Junction, are nearing completion and should be ready for occupancy within two or three weeks. Two of the buildings are being constructed by T. A. and R. D. Corken, and the other by the Northwestern bank. The Corken brothers' buildings which will be occupied by Corken & Yaple are modern in every way. They will be heated by a large furnace and a large elevator has been installed to transport merchandise on three floors. The west room will be used strictly for a salesroom. Shelving is being built along the entire length of the west wall, a distance of 100 feet. The office will be in the southwest corner. The east side of this room will be used for a display space. The east room will be used for the tinning department, and for handling heavy hardware. It has a cement floor and every convenience for this kind of work. The upper story and the basement will be used for storage purposes. The Northwestern bank building will be practically the same as the one that was destroyed by fire. The lobby will have a steel ceiling and tile floor. To the rear of this is a large directors' room and a big vault where customers' boxes are kept. The back of this building will be finished into attractive office rooms for Dr. G. C. Trusty, Burlington Junction's dentist. When these rooms are completed Dr. Trusty will have the most convenient and most attractive dental parlor in the county.

Joe Rogers arrived in Clearmont Monday afternoon on a 15 day furlough Joe is in the naval service, going in in May, 1917. He is on the ship, Albany. He has made ten trips over and back. This is the first time he has been home since he left in May, 1917. He is looking fine, being much heavier than when he enlisted. It is interesting to hear him tell of the navy life and of some of the experiences he has had.

The Clearmont News expects to move the latter part of this week to its own quarters in rooms just east of the Caldwell garage, where it will have very nice rooms.

Owing to the influenza again breaking out the Clearmont schools were again closed Monday morning and the picture show and other public gatherings in Clearmont were stopped.

The fathersand students of the monastery and college at Conception are in retreat this week. The fathers in attendance from other parishes are Fr. Anstem, Maryville; Fr. Hildephonse Parnell; Fr. Hildebrant, Pilot Grove; Fr. Fintan, Springfield; Fr. Odilo, Maryville; Fr. Thomas, Moberly, and Fr. Frowin, Clyde. Father Magnus of St. Vincent, Pa., is Master of Retreat for the fathers, and Fr. Patrick is acting in that capacity for the students.

It is said the wheat never looked better than it does this fall. A large acreage was sown or drilled, and if the winter does not kill it, there will be an abundant crop next year.

Chester Mindmiller came to Pranell from New York City the fore part of last week on a visit with old friends. He is in the navy and has crossed the pond several times on the New Jersey. He made a nice talk to the pupils of our public schools last Friday afternoon.

Wm. Spoonemore of Ravenwood, shot himself through his left hand Tuesday while cleaning his 38-caliber revolver.

OLD GLORY.

Dedicated to the Sons of America by Mrs. Jas. B. Robinson.

The war is done and Old Glory
Waves proudly on as of yore
She tells of the Nation's great story
Of freedom for all—evermore.

Old Glory our emblem of beauty,
Of freedom, of justice and right,
She tells how our boys knew their duty
And for her they were willing to fight.

Old Glory so grand and so glorious
That our blessed sons did defend,
She tells us how they were victorious,
They fought bravely on to the end.

Old Glory our star-spangled banner
More dear to us now than before,
Since our glorious boys died to save her
Across on a far-distant shore.

Old Glory has ne'er been defeated,
No matter how near nor how far
The enemy's charge was repeated
She lives without blemish or scar.

Old Glory, the flag of our Nation,
To you we shall ever be true;
The loveliest flag of all creation,
Our own flag, our red, white and blue.

The war is done and Old Glory
Still waves over all up above;
She tells us again the old story
Of peace, the gift of God's love.

W. G. Gillam of Hobson, Mont., is visiting in Maryville with his brother, S. G. Gillam and other relatives.

QUEER NAMES IN ARMY

Privates Green, Grass and Clover Are Patients at the Base Hospital in Des Moines, Iowa.

(By Sergeant A. H. Brayton.)

When Shakespeare pulled that old one about "what's in a name" he probably did not realize how much it was going to be quoted, or how many aspiring copy writers would be helped out by starting a story with these few words. But nevertheless, we are going to make use of it just the same, and make a few statements regarding the cognomens, appellations, titles and plain ordinary names, that pass thru the postoffice at the Base Hospital.

Incidentally, it might be stated that the postoffice at the Base Hospital seems to be the repository for most of the mail in camp. While we speak without definite information, it might be stated in perfectly good faith that whenever the Camp Dodge mail clerks don't know what to do with a few hundred sacks of mail they shoot it up to the Base.

Green, Grass and Clover.

As a result it is no uncommon sight to see mail for the commanding general, the division surgeon, any number of the Depot Brigade organizations or the various other hospital units that are in camp, all delivered here. The limit was reached the other day when the mail orderly calmly brought out a huge bunch of mail labeled 'Remount Depot," which had found its way up here.

But even among the letters that come for the patients in the hospital are names that make odd and humorous combinations. Sergeant James Murphy, in charge of the hospital postoffice, which is the largest in camp, has gathered a few together and given them to us for publication. For instance, there is Mr. Day Short, who evidently quits work along about 3 in the afternoon, judging from his title. There is Private Long and Private Knight, both in the same ward at the hospital, while three others who ought to be in the same ward, whether they are or not, are Privates Green, Grass and Clover. Sort of a pastoral trio, as it were.

Odd Names Are Assets.

A couple of Indians who were patients at the hospital during the "flu" epidemic, bore the rather astounding names of John Littlemoney and Willie Sleepsfromhome.

One thing these soldiers could say that helped them along, and that was no matter how many thousand patients were in the hospital, they always got their mail. Once their names were noticed, they always received their letters promptly, as every clerk in the postoffice knew exactly where they were located. So after all, it helps to have a name that can be noticed.

Collar Button Cured Flu.

A Topeka man, feeling pains he thought were influenza symptoms, took what he thought was a pill from the kitchen table. Really, however, it was a button his wife had lost from her white spats. Nevertheless, the flu symptoms had all flown next morning.

Drops From Heaven to Preach.

London.—(By Universal Service).—A preacher literally comes down out of the heavens to preach the Gospel to American aviators in England. He is the Rev. Reginald Crew, American Y. M. C. A. pastor-aviator who flies from one aviation camp to another, holding religious services for the "boys." He has no long distance record, but he has flown as far as thirty miles between camps for a prayer meeting.

Arriving at a camp, he frequently gives his Yank birdmen congregation, thousands of feet below, a preliminary exhibition in the "corkscrew," "loop the loop," "apple turnover" and other fancy stunts. That insures their attention.

Then he volplanes to earth, climbs out of his chariot, removes his football headgear and starts "church." The boys call him the "sky pilot." He is a great favorite and they eagerly flock to services.

Plenty of Milk Each Day.

Two general maxims should be learned by the people of the United States: "Every adult should have at least a third of a quart of milk each day," and "No family of five should buy any meat until it has bought three quarts of milk."

One reason for urging the use of much milk, is that it is our best source of certain mineral salts, notably lime, which the body needs. It is so easy to use milk in cooking that one scarcely needs these reminders of different ways from the United States Food Administration.

FOR BREAKFAST: Milk to drink in cocoa, on cereals, milk or creamed toast.

FOR LUNCH, DINNER or SUPPER: Milk soups and chowders, oyster stew, cottage cheese, creamed sauce for vegetables, meat, etc., custards, ice creams sherbets, blanc manges, rice puddings, tapioca puddings, junket, in all baking, and in milk drinks, such as malted milk, egg nog, etc.

Canned Tomatoes for Yanks.

Arrangements have just been made, whereby the army, navy and the marine corps are to take 45 per cent of the entire production of canned tomatoes in the United States. This is based upon estimates of the pack being from 18,500,000 to 20,000,000 cases—two dozen cans to the case. The government will require about 8,500 carloads of 1,000 cases each. It would take a freight train nearly sixty miles long to move this quota. More than 75 per cent of the total government requirements will be used by the army.

Common Ways of Wasting Fats.

To "eat fat just to save it" is as unwise as it is difficult. A small piece of bread left on a plate can be eaten to save it from ending its day in the garbage can, but fat it not so easily and judiciously saved from waste.

The Food Administration points out that all the many ways of wasting fat should be thoughtfully avoided by the housewife.

Do you waste fat in any of these ways?

By serving baked ham with large portions of fat on the edge.

By throwing away fat trimmed from beef or other fresh meat.

By serving large butter or margarine balls to each person.

By using heavy cream.

By frying food in deep fat.

By frying food when it would be as well or better to bake or stew it.

By making pies or other pastries when simpler desserts would be more nourishing.

Think it over, and see that these sins are wiped off your slate.

Cub Reporter Gets Set-Back.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 23.—Irvin Cobb, during a short stay in Atlanta, dropped the following good one:

A Pittsburgh managing editor sent a cub reporter to cover a mine disaster near Cokeville, some distance from Pittsburgh.

The young man arrived at the scene, dallied around until late at night and started to wire his story in as follows:

Cokeville, Pa., Nov. 22.—God sits tonight on the hills around Cokeville—

"Stop him," said the night editor, banging over the story. "Send him this message:

"Never mind mine disaster. Interview God. Get pictures."

The reindeer has been known to pull a load of 200 pounds at ten miles an hour for twelve hours.

Public Notice

To any person that wants to make more money, come to Wyoming and buy you a farm where the crop in one year will pay for the land and where one acre put in potatoes will pay for five acres at the present price; where you and your family will be healthy and you are sure to prosper if you work and try like you have to in Missouri. Now I know what I am saying, as I lived here in good old Missouri for 18 years and always tried hard to get us a home, but when I left here three years ago I owed over $1,600.00 of debts here that I could not pay, but have paid them since I went to Wyoming. I am only telling you this to encourage you to come. We have good schools good churches, good water and climate, and as good people as you can find anywhere. I have land I can sell from $15.00 per acre up to $50.00 per acre. Close to two good railroads. Have got a 2,400 acre ranch at $25.00 per acre that is sure a bargain.

Now the first reason I want you to come to Wyoming is, because if you come and buy a farm I get a small commission out of it, but that is not the best reason. I know I will be doing you a favor and know you will always be glad you come. Now, in case some stranger to me should read this ad. I will give you as reference some of the best men in Nodaway County or any other county. In Parnell, James Barber, W. N. Morgan, C. C. Evans, A. J. Roof, Bill Jackson; Ravenwood, Mo., S. E. Wells, and V. O. Hunt; Barnard, Mo., George Cole, banker; Gaynor City, Mo., Charlie Lewis; Sheridan, Mo., C. C. Hall; Hopkins, Mo., Albert Mutti; Maryville, Mo., Nathaniel Sisson, U. S. Wright, Henry Wright, James Robinson. For any information about this county, if you can't see me when I am here, write me at Carpenter, Wyo. I took three men out with me two weeks ago and sold all three a farm. Would be glad to have you talk to any of these men: Cecil Talkington of Parnell or Elmer Talkington and Pete Mumford of Bedford, Iowa. We raise corn, wheat, oats, barley, rye, speltz, flax, millet, cane and potatoes, alfalfa and good gardens. Poultry of all kinds do well. Stock of all kinds do well, especially hogs, as hog cholera is unknown.

The only way you can realize what a good county we have is to come and see it. For further information, write—

SCHOOLS OPEN DEC. 2

BOARD DECIDES "FLU" CONDITIONS ARE STILL UNSAFE

ALL TEACHERS ARE PAID

Manner in Which Time Lost Will Be Made Up Is Left to Supt. McDonald.—New Principal.

Maryville public schools will remain closed until Monday, Dec. 2. This was the decision reached at a meeting last night of the school board, following the announcement by the city health authorities that the influenza ban would be lifted next Monday morning, at which time the schools would be permitted to open if the board so elected. It was the opinion of a majority of the members that it would be advisable to defer opening another week, awaiting developments as to influenza conditions following the removal of the ban. The fact that Thanksgiving comes next week and also that a number of parents had said they would not send their children until all danger was past, served to influence the members in making the decision and Superintendent J. M. McDonald was instructed to advise the teachers to be in readiness to resume classes on the date named.

The manner in which the time lost—seven weeks—will be made up was left to Superintendent McDonald, who expressed himself as being in favor of adding half an hour to each week day with three hours on Saturday mornings until the close of the term, with Christmas holidays being reduced to two days, Christmas day and the day following. If this plan is followed all the time lost may be made up by the time the school term is scheduled to close, without lengthening the term. Definite announcement of the plan will be announced by Superintendent McDonald before the opening on December 2.

The board decided to pay the teachers for the time lost without deductions of any kind and warrants were ordered drawn, this being the end of the third month since the opening in the fall.

The resignation of Miss Mamie Kane as principal of the Jefferson school was accepted by the board and Miss Myrtle Hogue was elected to fill out the remainder of the term. Miss Hogue has been a teacher in the second grade for a number of years and her advancement is a well deserved promotion.

Other than allowing a number of bills no other business was transacted at the meeting.

THEIR BIGGEST WINNINGS

Shorthorns From the Bellows Bros., Herd Took Large Share of the Prizes at American Royal.

Animals from the fine Shorthorn herd of Bellows Bros., were large winners at the American Live Stock Show just closed in Kansas City, being awarded five firsts, four seconds, together with a loving cup and other winnings. Classes in which the Bellows Bros. animals were winners were:

First on aged herd; first on young herd; first on produce of cow; first on futurity heifer; first on junior heifer calf; second on get of sire; second on two year old bull; second on two year old heifer; second and fifth on junior bull calves; fifth on calf herd.

This represents the largest winnings of the Parkdale Farm herd at any of the big shows, with the American Royal this year bringing together the greatest number of exhibitors in the history of the show. The prize winning animals will be shipped to Chicago to compete in the International Live Stock Exposition which will be held there next week.

Parkdale Victoria II, owned by Bellows Brothers won the W. R. Nelson trophy for the best futurity calf in the Shorthorn class. Bellows Brothers won the award two years ago, being the first breeders to win the trophy twice.

The Caldwell animals, also extensive winners at the Kansas City show, will also be exhibited at Chicago next week.

SECRETARY M'ADOO RESIGNS

"Inadequate Pay" of Cabinet Officers One of Reasons Given.—Will Retire to Private Life.

Washington, Nov. 23.—The capital today is still reeling over the shock of the announcement of the retirement from public life of Secretary McAdoo. Accepting absolutely at its face value the statement of Mr. McAdoo that he was compelled to quit to "recoup his fortune," officialdom was criticizing a system that put a premium on rich men. It was agreed that the problem of filling the vacant place will be a hard one, although President Wilson, it is understood, has a man in view to head the treasury and will announce his choice next week.

Washington, Nov. 23.—William G. McAdoo has resigned office as secretary of the treasury and director-general of railroads, to leave the treasury on the appointment of a successor and the railroad administration on Jan. 1, next.

Retirement was made necessary, Mr. McAdoo said, because of "inadequate compensation," allowed cabinet officers.

The secretary also explained that he is seriously in need of rest, although there is no actual impairment of health.

The secretary plans to take about three months rest and then may resume the practice of law in New York.

The president in his letter of acceptance expressed regret at the secretary's resignation, referring particularly to Mr. McAdoo's "distinguished, disinterested and altogether admirable service rendered the country in both posts."

Mr. McAdoo explained to the correspondents that he had intended to resign before March 4, 1917, but remained because of pressing war problems.

LIBRARY RE-OPENS MONDAY

Patrons Will No Longer Have to Haunt News Stands for Something to Read.—New Books Soon.

No longer will patrons of the public library have to haunt the news stands in search of something to read. The library will reopen Monday, following the lifting of the influenza ban, while the rule requiring that not more than twenty persons assemble at one time will be observed, patrons will have access as usual to the books and the reading rooms. R. L. McDougal, member of the library board stated this morning that while the board had taken no action it might be announced that the library would be open again to patrons Monday.

With the library fund having been exhausted no new books have been purchased for some time, but a list is being prepared of some of the late fiction and other works by Miss Grace Langan, librarian, and it is expected that funds will be available within a short time with which to make the needed additions.

NODAWAY CITIZENS PLEDGE SUPPORT TO MOVEMENT

MAKE IT WORTH WHILE

W. C. Pierce, Liberty Loan Chairman and C. E. Donlin, Head of the United War Fund Drive, Express Their Opinions.

The movement to erect a memorial in honor of Nodaway county soldiers commemorating deeds of valor and sacrifices in the great war is meeting with hearty approval. W. C. Pierce, chairman of the Third and Fourth Liberty Loan committees adds endorsement to the movement in the following communication to the Democrat-Forum:

Democrat-Forum: I am glad to reply to your letter with reference to some kind of a memorial as a mark of appreciation of the patriotic services of the Nodaway county soldiers and sailors in the "great war," but I regret I am not sufficiently informed.

First, that there should be one erected, we will all agree. What should be the nature I am undecided. By what name it should be known and where situated would depend, in my judgment, upon the nature.

The funds should, I think, be obtained by a popular subscription—something in the nature of a county-wide solicitation—but this should not be attempted until the Liberty Loans and subscriptions to other war activities are out of the road. While our soldiers are in service Uncle Sam will need the proceeds from additional bond issues and there will be the subscriptions to United War Works and things necessary for the comfort of the boys, and it is therefore unwise to burden the people until that is over.

It might be argued the money could be raised easier now than later, but that would be charging ourselves with a lack of patriotism. We are certainly not going to forget within the next few months the deeds of valor and the sacrifices made by the sons of this county.

It would afford me pleasure to take any part or render any service necessary to the accomplishment of the end.

Yours truly,
W. C. PIERCE.

C. E. Donlin of Hopkins, chairman of the United War Work Fund Campaign and an enthusiastic Red Cross worker offers suggestions as follows:

Editor Democrat-Forum: Your query regarding just what form of memorial should be adopted by the county or the various towns in the county received. I have recently been all over the county and believe that I am in a position to say that the people of the county would NOT take kindly to a proposition of a memorial for the Nodaway county boys if that memorial was to be placed in Maryville.

My idea is that every town in the county will no doubt adopt some plan of its own and will want a more intimate association with the suggestion than a formal gift to a central memorial shaft or what ever form it might take on.

I think eventually every town will adopt some plan of its own and on that account the leaders will not take kindly to any idea of taking the whole plan into a central organization.

If I were a citizen of Maryville my suggestion to the citizens there would be that it take on a permanent plan of a Y. M. C. A. building named in honor of the boys who went from Maryville or Nodaway county. It seems to me to be the opportune time strike that lick for a Y. M. C. A. in Maryville

My only reason for not undertaking the proposition in Hopkins is the town is not large enough to support such an institution as it should be.

This in my opinion would be a more lasting testimonial of the honor and esteem of your citizens, to the boys who fought your and my battles, than a shaft of marble or granite would be.

Being under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. it would be assured of competant and practical attention.

In any event some effort should be made to permanently honor these young men who left their business and work of every sort to serve their country and if it is the sense of the citizens of Nodaway county that a central memorial should be erected in Maryville I am for it.

I think however each community should work out that plan that suits them best.

Yours truly,
C. E. DONLIN.

AUTO THEIVES BUSY AGAIN

Garage of Banker J. T. Goff at Arkoe, Broken Into and Ford Roadster Stolen.—No Clue.

Thieves last night broke into the garage of J. T. Goff, cashier of the Arkoe State bank and got away with his Ford roadster. With two padlocks on the garage, one of them a Yale lock, it appears that the thieves had little trouble in gaining an entrance and succeeded in getting the car out without disturbing the family, the Goff residence being less than one hundred feet from the garage. Officers were at once notified of the theft and efforts were made to trace the thieves but without result. Late this afternoon no clue had been found that might be followed.

St. Mary's also will open Monday morning after having been closed during the influenza epidemic. Rev. Odilo Schieber said this afternoon that he expected a good attendance.

FIGHTING AGAIN IN BERLIN

Adherents of Radicals Storm Police Station.—Hamburg Also Center of Revolutionist Movement.

London, Nov. 23.—Dictatorships have been established in Dusseldorf and Frankfort by German radicals led by the Spartacus group, said an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen today. The extremists are masters of the situation in Solingen and Remscheid. Fighting again broke out in Berlin Thursday night when followers of the Spartacus adherents attempted to storm the police station and the building was the center of hostilities for a considerable time. Great excitement prevails in Hamburg where there is strong counter revolutionary unrest. The Spartacus group are German extremists and are accused of strong Bolshevik leanings.

ZEIGLER'S MEN LOST A HARD FOUGHT GAME YESTERDAY

GATE RECEIPTS SMALL

Maryville Shows Little Appreciation of Team That Has Been Playing Winning Football.

Before a crowd of less than fifty persons the Maryville High School football team yesterday afternoon, playing the Cameron Highs, lost one of the best games of the season, the final score being 12-7. The M. H. S. displayed everything they had in stock, but their wares did not look good to the Cameronites, who outplayed them. The visitors, however, will remember for a long time to come that Maryville was about the toughest proposition they have ever tackled. The game left the Maryville's in the hole to the tune of about $80, the gate receipts being about $8.

Yesterday's game was played on a wet, sticky field, but was a battle from start to finish.

Maryville won the toss up and received the kick off. Maryville started to plowing through for big gains, De Armond carrying the ball most of the time. Then Maryville lost the ball on a fumble and Cameron, after a few plays sent their quarter back through the line for a touch-down. Price missed a tackle which made the touch-down possible. Cameron did not kick goal. When Cameron kicked off, Maryville plowed through them and carried the ball down the field for a touch-down, Pierpoint carrying the ball over. When Maryville kicked off to Cameron they were full of pep and playing real football. But at this point DeArmond was put out of the game for illegal use of his hands. Maryville was penalized half the distance to the goal line. This took a lot of pep out of Maryville. Cameron after a few plays made a touch-down, but failed to kick goal. A few minutes later the half ended.

The second half was an even break, Maryville kicked off to Cameron. Neither team was able to get near the other's goal line. Most of the playing was done in the mud in the middle of the field. No scores were made. The half ended with the ball in the middle of the field.

For Maryville Captain Pierpoint was easily the star performer. DeArmond made some fine plays before he was put out. His loss was felt during the remainder of the game. Price did not play his usual good game. Foreman played a fine game. In the line Campbell and French opened a hole every time.

For Cameron, Witt, quarter-back and Howard, right guard, starred. Witt is a fine broken field runner.

Maryville plays Savannah Thanksgiving at Savannah. A large number of Maryville rooters expect to go to the game.

ROBERT GROPPE IN ENGLAND

Nodaway Boy Is Recovering From Injuries in Base Hospital.

Robert Groppe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Groppe, writes from London where he is convalescing following an airplane accident in which he had both arms broken, under date of November 5, as follows:

"Am feeling fine now except a little nervous for I have just had the lagrippe—they call it influenza over here—but its grippe just the same. It is quite rainy in England, raining almost every day, so I can't run around much. Am in a convalescent ward now and when the weather permits I am all over London and seeing some mighty interesting places. I have been going around with a fellow that lives close to New Richland, but he says he doesn't know any Carters. I hope you get the letter I wrote about the Red Cross, for it is like work to write one. All the time I was writing it I thought of how Miss Keeler at the high school used to rave at my English. I got the bundle of papers and was mighty glad to get them, for there is a lot of reading in them. Can you send them every week to two in a bundle?"

MISSOURI SENT 144,478

State Furnished Big Fighting Force and Oversubscribed All War Quotas.—Food Supplies Increased.

Jefferson City, Mo., Nov. 23.—Missouri furnished 144,478 fighting men and contributed many millions toward the winning of the war, according to an address of Governor Gardner before county food administrators today.

The governor, who obtained his figures from Col. J. H. McCord, executive officer of the selective draft, and Adjutant-General Clark, said that Missouri furnished 14,756 national guardsmen, 100,305 men under the selective service act, 3,984 men to the regular army, 7,700 men to the United States Navy, 5,864 men to naval reserves, 5,000 marines, 2,639 to special arms, and 400 to officers' training camps.

Governor Gardner said Missourians had purchased more than $500,000,000 in liberty bonds, and had oversubscribed their quotas to all war charities.

The governor expressed hope that the United States would demand a righteous peace, untarnished by envy, jealousy, hate or spite, but bottomed on justice.

We have a notion that one of the reasons that decided President Wilson on the European trip was Mrs. Wilson.

A lazy man's idea of happiness isn't "nothing to do;" it is seeing something to do and not having to do it.

These "fair food prices" seem to be 'fair" only to the man who has the food to sell. At least it looks that way to a man up a tree.

"What is a limited corporation, or partnershhip," a high school boy asked us today. Well, for instance there was "Me und Gott."

We note in a Kansas City paper that "L. R. Tolliver, who was stabbed in the rear of the basement at the Jackson County Home for the Aged will recover." A knife wound in that place is apt to be fatal.

A student of nature says that the reason why leaves turn red in the autumn is, that they blush to think how green they've been all summer.

But what availeth it that the allowance of sugar will be doubled or even quadrupled beginning December 1, if during the holidays eggs are higher'n a cat's back and whisky unobtainable. Hey!

Of course, no one expected that the armistice terms would cover every necessary feature and detail, but it would have been a wise thing to have included something about the influx of Chautauqua lecturers by men who have been "over there" next summer. It is then that we will indeed begin to realize that what Sherman said about war was so.

A Maryville man boasts that his wife makes over his old hats so neatly they completely fool him and would fool any man. Maybe so "ANY man" but its a cinch they don't fool ANY woman.

Now if the board of public works will just declare the ban off on the muddy water we've been getting lately there will be real cause for Thanksgiving.

FIND WONDERFUL ROADS

Built by Huns With Timber Stolen From Argonne Forest, Construction Astonished Engineers.

Paris (by mail).—Four years ago when the Teutonic hordes, sweeping across the Argonne hills and forests were suddenly stopped at Verdun they constructed a road which is considered by American engineers as one of the most remarkable they have yet come across in re-occupied French territory.

The road is about two kilometers long, built of planks, smooth as glass, with two levels, each for one way traffic, and constructed at the side of a steep hill which served as protection from Allied shells. The enormous amount of lumber required for this double-track highway was of course, stolen from the Argonne forests.

Hidden behind the steep cliffs the road was literally stumbled upon by the American First Army in its recent advance. While it had been used, no doubt, constantly since the late fall of 1914, it was in perfect condition when it fell into American hands.

The road itself was absolutely necessary to the Germans because of the scarcity of highways leading into that part of the Argonne. It was a short cut, considered from a communication standpoint, and while American batteries had completely cut up all other German avenues of escape, the plank road was saved from injury by its hillside protection.

Anyway, now it belongs to the Americans.

OBITUARY.

"I held it true whate'er befall,
I felt it when I sorrowed most,
'Tis better to have loved and lost
Than never to have loved at all."

Clifford Lyman Moon was born near Arkoe, Mo., Nov. 30, 1899, and died at his late home in Maryville, Mo., Oct. 7, 1918, being at the time of his death eighteen years, eleven months and nine days old.

He grew to manhood at Pickering, Mo,. and attended the Pickering high school, where he took active part in the athletics of the school. He afterward attended the State Normal School at Maryville for a short time.

When about fifteen years of age he professed faith in Christ in a meeting conducted by Evangelist Goodale. He united with the Pickering church under the ministry of E. W. Killion.

The funeral was conducted by the writer in the presence of a small number of friends and relatives at the family home on East Third St., in Maryville, after which the body was laid to rest in the White Oak cemetery near the old home at Pickering.

It is hard to be called upon to mourn for those whom we fondly hoped would mourn for us. The parents have the smypathy of the entire community in the loss of their only son. May the kind Heavenly Father comfort them as only our God can comfort.

"This truth came born with shroud and pall,
I feel it when I sorrow most,
'Tis better to have loved and lost,
Than never to have loved at all."

NEWS FROM
NODAWAY COUNTY TOWNS

(Taken From Papers Over the County)

The prospect now is that the Elmo schools will not be reopened before Monday, Dec. 2, two weeks from last Monday. The "flu" is still here, and while the cases are usually mild, the Board feels that it would be better to wait until all danger is past. "Better to be safe than sorry."

S. R. Johnston of Elmo, was ordered by the U. S. civil service, to report at Leehall, Va., for work as a carpenter, and expected to report for duty Monday, Nov. 18, but got a telegram countermanding the order, because the war is over.

Lafe Harness of the aviation corps, fell last week and broke an arm. He was getting ready to go overseas, and expected to ship November 12. He was in Elmo a few days since, having come thru with the body of a friend who was buried at Blanchard recently.

A car loaded with the personal effects of the Rev. M. Dewitt was shipped from Skidmore yesterday to Craig where Rev. Dewitt is minister of the M. E. Church, South. Rev. Dewitt had until last conference served the congregations of this denomination at Skidmore, Centenary and New Hope for four years and during that time he and his family have formed many warm friendships not only in his own church, but with the people in general who regret to have them leave. The best wishes of all go with them to their new home.

G. F. Kellogg, in the government feed and seed department at Kansas City, was out over portions of the states of Nebraska, Kansas and Iowa the first of the week on a trip to ascertain the prospects for garden seeds for the coming season. During his absence, Mrs. Kellogg came to Skidmore and remained from Sunday until Wednesday morning with her parents Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Owens.

Jarvis Close is now the owner of the south 160 acres of the R. M. New 320 acre farm, having purchased it from Nr. New a few days ago. This farm lies eight miles west of Skidmore and is the quarter on which the improvements are located. The consideration was $180 per acre. Mr. New has purchased what is known as the Mutz 240 acre farm 2½ miles southwest of Maryville and will make that place his home. $215 an acre was paid for this place.

As Kellar Thompson of Hopkins, is not given to strong drink, it is safe for us to announce that he caught a real live lizard last Friday. The reptile was fully ten inches long and was captured near the crossing between the Wm. King and H. C. Clutter homes The delivery boy for Fike & Gray happened along about the time the lizzard was picked up so he threw it in the truck and brought it down town to have, as he said, "fun with." and when the reptile was placed near some of the chair warmers in the store, big, brave men jumped higher and yelled louder than some little timid women do when they see a mouse.

This is a year of all years that Thanksgiving should be observed in its fullest sense, it being the greatest of all years in the history of America, the victorious ending of a cruel war—the unconditional surrender of Germany, the country responsible for a war of conquest. The Thanksgiving program at Hopkins will be held at 10:45 in the Presbyterian church, the sermon to be delivered by the Rev. Mr. Stiles, the new pastor of the Methodist church, and he will be assisted by other ministers of the town. There will also be a program of music. The stores and other places of business will close and it is expected many from the country will be here to enjoy and take part in the exercises.

David Robb is now working at the Bank of Hopkins, taking the place of Robert Wolfers, who left last week for Chicago in answer to a call from the war department, having enlisted in the navy some months ago. His wife is visiting at present in the home of her parents in Madison, Wis., and will spend part of the time there and part of the time in Hopkins during Robert's absence.

Nothing increases the value of lands more than good roads to say nothing of the satisfaction and convenience good roads always are. Other states are expending vast sums in improving the highways and Missouri should not lag in this matter. The Journal would like to see Nodaway county and better still, Hopkins township, lead in the campaign for better roads. Illinois is going to spend sixty millions of dollars in building better roads.

Mrs. Chas. Evans of Hopkins, had a fine rooster she was fattening for a Thanksgiving night feast but last Thursday night the fowl disappeared and a diligent search of the neighborhood failed to disclose its whereabouts Of course, the fact that a Methodist parson resides near the Evans home, has no bearing on the case, but when it is remembered a meeting of Methodist ministers had been advertised for this week, the rooster must be given credit for having enough sense to smell a mouse and make good its getaway. The meeting has been called off, so the rooster can now return in safety.

Lee Rasco of Barnard, is about the most fortunate man in the country when it comes to late garden stuff. Saturday made him 50 years old and Sunday found his son-in-law, Virgil Hardisty 30 years old, so they gathered at Lee's home for a dinner Sunday. Lee picked enough ripe strawberries from his patch of Everbearing strawberries, to supply two full dishes of the lucious fruit, which were served to the guests of honor.

J. Howard Thompson, formerly a pastor of the M. E. Church of Barnard is now a "Y" secretary according to a letter received by Tom Humberd and wife.

The various churches of Barnard will hold a union Thanksgiving service on November 28th at 7:30 p. m This day has been appointed by our President of our nation; that we should enter into the house of God and give thanks for the numberless blessings bestowed. If there is ever a time in the history of our Lord, that we should be grateful to Almighty God, it is now. The victory of the great and world wide war has been achieved and peace has just been ushered in. Come and join with us Thanksgiving night and render unto Him our sincere thanks The sermon will be preached by the Rev. R. M. Wetzel, at the M. E. Church, South. There will be patriotic music.

The annual Thanksgiving service of Burlington Junction, will be held this year at the Methodist church. Altho it has been the custom for several years to hold this service in the forenoon, it was decided this year to change the hour to 7:30 in the evening as it is much more convenient for the majority of people to attend in the evening. So the service will be held in the Methodist church at 7:30 o'clock next Thursday evening, and will be conducted by Rev. J. M. Delezene, the new pastor of the Christian church, assisted by Rev. Ernest Snider.

The demand for Nodaway county soil is as great this year as ever, several farms having already changed hands this fall in the vicinity of Burlington Junction at figures that show, in some cases, a ten per cent advance over a year ago. While some purchases the past year have been made by local parties, Iowa men are beginning to appreciate the quality of Nodaway county soil, and are coming here in increasing numbers each year to make their homes. They are good judges of values—the Iowa men—and they know that Nodaway county has as good soil as can be found any place in the corn belt. The $200 an acre farm was once a novelty, even in Southern Iowa, but from the present outlook it will be a pretty common piece of real estate in this good country, where everything can be grown except tropical fruits and vegetables.

The three new buildings at Burlington Junction, are nearing completion and should be ready for occupancy within two or three weeks. Two of the buildings are being constructed by T. A. and R. D. Corken, and the other by the Northwestern bank. The Corken brothers' buildings which will be occupied by Corken & Yaple are modern in every way. They will be heated by a large furnace and a large elevator has been installed to transport merchandise on three floors. The west room will be used strictly for a salesroom. Shelving is being built along the entire length of the west wall, a distance of 100 feet. The office will be in the southwest corner. The east side of this room will be used for a display space. The east room will be used for the tinning department, and for handling heavy hardware. It has a cement floor and every convenience for this kind of work. The upper story and the basement will be used for storage purposes. The Northwestern bank building will be practically the same as the one that was destroyed by fire. The lobby will have a steel ceiling and tile floor. To the rear of this is a large directors' room and a big vault where customers' boxes are kept. The back of this building will be finished into attractive office rooms for Dr. G. C. Trusty, Burlington Junction's dentist. When these rooms are completed Dr. Trusty will have the most convenient and most attractive dental parlor in the county.

Joe Rogers arrived in Clearmont Monday afternoon on a 15 day furlough Joe is in the naval service, going in in May, 1917. He is on the ship, Albany. He has made ten trips over and back. This is the first time he has been home since he left in May, 1917. He is looking fine, being much heavier than when he enlisted. It is interesting to hear him tell of the navy life and of some of the experiences he has had.

The Clearmont News expects to move the latter part of this week to its own quarters in rooms just east of the Caldwell garage, where it will have very nice rooms.

Owing to the influenza again breaking out the Clearmont schools were again closed Monday morning and the picture show and other public gatherings in Clearmont were stopped.

The fathers and students of the monastery and college at Conception are in retreat this week. The fathers in attendance from other parishes are Fr. Anslem, Maryville; Fr. Ildephonse Parnell; Fr. Hildebrant, Pilot Grove; Fr. Fintan, Springfield; Fr. Odilo, Maryville; Fr. Thomas, Moberly, and Fr. Frowin, Clyde. Father Magnus of St. Vincent, Pa., is Master of Retreat for the fathers, and Fr. Patrick is acting in that capacity for the students.

It is said the wheat never looked better than it does this fall. A large acreage was sown or drilled, and if the winter does not kill it, there will be an abundant crop next year.

Chester Mindmiller came to Pranell from New York City the fore part of last week on a visit with old friends. He is in the navy and has crossed the pond several times on the New Jersey. He made a nice talk to the pupils of our public schools last Friday afternoon.

Wm. Spoonemore of Ravenwood, shot himself through his left hand Tuesday while cleaning his 38-caliber revolver.

OLD GLORY.

Dedicated to the Sons of America by Mrs. Jas. B. Robinson.

The war is done and Old Glory
Waves proudly on as of yore
She tells of the Nation's great story
Of freedom for all—evermore.

Old Glory our emblem of beauty,
Of freedom, of justice and right,
She tells how our boys knew their duty
And for her they were willing to fight.

Old Glory so grand and so glorious
That our blessed sons did defend,
She tells us how they were victorious,
They fought bravely on to the end.

Old Glory our star-spangled banner
More dear to us now than before,
Since our glorious boys died to save her
Across on a far-distant shore.

Old Glory has ne'er been defeated,
No matter how near nor how far
The enemy's charge was repeated
She lives without blemish or scar.

Old Glory, the flag of our Nation,
To you we shall ever be true;
The loveliest flag of all creation,
Our own flag, our red, white and blue.

The war is done and Old Glory
Still waves over all up above;
She tells us again the old story
Of peace, the gift of God's love.

W. G. Gillam of Hobson, Mont., is visiting in Maryville with his brother, S. G. Gillam and other relatives.

QUEER NAMES IN ARMY

Privates Green, Grass and Clover Are Patients at the Base Hospital in Des Moines, Iowa.

(By Sergeant A. H. Brayton.)

When Shakespeare pulled that old one about "what's in a name" he probably did not realize how much it was going to be quoted, or how many aspiring copy writers would be helped out by starting a story with these few words. But nevertheless, we are going to make use of it just the same, and make a few statements regarding the cognomens, appellations, titles and plain ordinary names, that pass thru the postoffice at the Base Hospital.

Incidentally, it might be stated that the postoffice at the Base Hospital seems to be the repository for most of the mail in camp. While we speak without definite information, it might be stated in perfectly good faith that whenever the Camp Dodge mail clerks don't know what to do with a few hundred sacks of mail they shoot it up to the Base.

Green, Grass and Clover.

As a result it is no uncommon sight to see mail for the commanding general, the division surgeon, any number of the Depot Brigade organizations or the various other hospital units that are in camp, all delivered here. The limit was reached the other day when the mail orderly calmly brought out a huge bunch of mail labeled 'Remount Depot," which had found its way up here.

But even among the letters that come for the patients in the hospital are names that make odd and humorous combinations. Sergeant James Murphy, in charge of the hospital postoffice, which is the largest in camp, has gathered a few together and given them to us for publication. For instance, there is Mr. Day Short, who evidently quits work along about 3 in the afternoon, judging from his title. There is Private Long and Private Knight, both in the same ward at the hospital, while three others who ought to be in the same ward, whether they are or not, are Privates Green, Grass and Clover. Sort of a pastoral trio, as it were.

Odd Names Are Assets.

A couple of Indians who were patients at the hospital during the "flu" epidemic, bore the rather astounding names of John Littlemoney and Willie Sleepsfromhome.

One thing these soldiers could say that helped them along, and that was no matter how many thousand patients were in the hospital, they always got their mail. Once their names were noticed, they always received their letters promptly, as every clerk in the postoffice knew exactly where they were located. So after all, it helps to have a name that can be noticed.

Drops From Heaven to Preach.

London.—(By Universal Service).—A preacher literally comes down out of the heavens to preach the Gospel to American aviators in England. He is the Rev. Reginald Crew, American Y. M. C. A. pastor-aviator who flies from one aviation camp to another, holding religious services for the "boys." He has no long distance record, but he has flown as far as thirty miles between camps for a prayer meeting.

Arriving at a camp, he frequently gives his Yank birdmen congregation, thousands of feet below, a preliminary exhibition in the "corkscrew," "loop the loop," "apple turnover" and other fancy stunts. That insures their attention.

Then he volplanes to earth, climbs out of his chariot, removes his football headgear and starts "church." The boys call him the "sky pilot." He is a great favorite and they eagerly flock to services.

Plenty of Milk Each Day.

Two general maxims should be learned by the people of the United States: "Every adult should have at least a third of a quart of milk each day," and "No family of five should buy any meat until it has bought three quarts of milk."

One reason for urging the use of much milk, is that it is our best source of certain mineral salts, notably lime, which the body needs. It is so easy to use milk in cooking that one scarcely needs these reminders of different ways from the United States Food Administration.

FOR BREAKFAST: Milk to drink in cocoa, on cereals, milk or creamed toast.

FOR LUNCH, DINNER or SUPPER: Milk soups and chowders, oyster stew, cottage cheese, creamed sauce for vegetables, meat, etc., custards, ice creams sherbets, blanc manges, rice puddings, tapioca puddings, junket, in all baking, and in milk drinks, such as malted milk, egg nog, etc.

Canned Tomatoes for Yanks.

Arrangements have just been made, whereby the army, navy and the marine corps are to take 45 per cent of the entire production of canned tomatoes in the United States. This is based upon estimates of the pack being from 18,500,000 to 20,000,000 cases—two dozen cans to the case. The government will require about 8,500 carloads of 1,000 cases each. It would take a freight train nearly sixty miles long to move this quota. More than 75 per cent of the total government requirements will be used by the army.

Common Ways of Wasting Fats.

To "eat fat just to save it" is as unwise as it is difficult. A small piece of bread left on a plate can be eaten to save it from ending its day in the garbage can, but fat it not so easily and judiciously saved from waste.

The Food Administration points out that all the many ways of wasting fat should be thoughtfully avoided by the housewife.

Do you waste fat in any of these ways?

By serving baked ham with large portions of fat on the edge.

By throwing away fat trimmed from beef or other fresh meat.

By serving large butter or margarine balls to each person.

By using heavy cream.

By frying food in deep fat.

By frying food when it would be as well or better to bake or stew it.

By making pies or other pastries when simpler desserts would be more nourishing.

Think it over, and see that these sins are wiped off your slate.

Cub Reporter Gets Set-Back.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 23.—Irvin Cobb, during a short stay in Atlanta, dropped the following good one:

A Pittsburgh managing editor sent a cub reporter to cover a mine disaster near Cokeville, some distance from Pittsburgh.

The young man arrived at the scene, dallied around until late at night and started to wire his story in as follows:

Cokeville, Pa., Nov. 22.—God sits tonight on the hills around Cokeville—

"Stop him," said the night editor, banging over the story. "Send him this message:

"Never mind mine disaster. Interview God. Get pictures."

The reindeer has been known to pull a load of 200 pounds at ten miles an hour for twelve hours.

Public Notice

To any person that wants to make more money, come to Wyoming and buy you a farm where the crop in one year will pay for the land and where one acre put in potatoes will pay for five acres at the present price; where you and your family will be healthy and you are sure to prosper if you work and try like you have to in Missouri. Now I know what I am saying, as I lived here in good old Missouri for 18 years and always tried hard to get us a home, but when I left here three years ago I owed over $1,600.00 of debts here that I could not pay, but have paid them since I went to Wyoming. I am only telling you this to encourage you to come. We have good schools good churches, good water and climate, and as good people as you can find anywhere. I have land I can sell from $15.00 per acre up to $50.00 per acre. Close to two good railroads. Have got a 2,400 acre ranch at $25.00 per acre that is sure a bargain.

Now the first reason I want you to come to Wyoming is, because if you come and buy a farm I get a small commission out of it, but that is not the best reason. I know I will be doing you a favor and know you will always be glad you come. Now, in case some stranger to me should read this ad. I will give you as reference some of the best men in Nodaway County or any other county. In Parnell, James Barber, W. N. Morgan, C. C. Evans, A. J. Roof, Bill Jackson; Ravenwood, Mo., S. E. Wells, and V. O. Hunt; Barnard, Mo., George Cole, banker; Gaynor City, Mo., Charlie Lewis; Sheridan, Mo., C. C. Hall; Hopkins, Mo., Albert Mutti; Maryville, Mo., Nathaniel Sisson, U. S. Wright, Henry Wright, James Robinson. For any information about this county, if you can't see me when I am here, write me at Carpenter, Wyo. I took three men out with me two weeks ago and sold all three a farm. Would be glad to have you talk to any of these men: Cecil Talkington of Parnell or Elmer Talkington and Pete Mumford of Bedford, Iowa. We raise corn, wheat, oats, barley, rye, speltz, flax, millet, cane and potatoes, alfalfa and good gardens. Poultry of all kinds do well. Stock of all kinds do well, especially hogs, as hog cholera is unknown.

The only way you can realize what a good county we have is to come and see it. For further information, write—

Frank Bebb, Carpenter, Wyoming
